Say it again Billerica

Below: Ed Crowley, Mannie Cabral, and Tom Breen.

We spoke out.

We yelled, laughed, cried.

We said what was on our minds and in our hearts. And sometimes we let our actions speak for themselves.

We spoke out and said who we are, who we want to be, and how we want the world to be.

We've said hello . . . and good-bye.

We said what we believed in.

We told the world what we wanted and made them listen to our words.

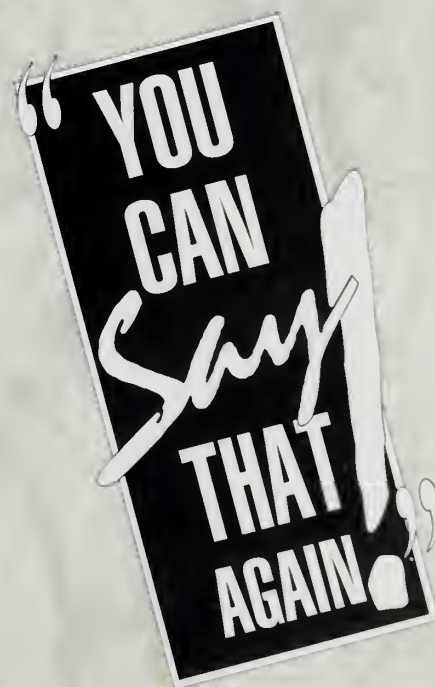

Everyday we say who we are and what we stand for, and that is something we will say again, and again, and again.

“It is the rare fortune of these days that one may think what one likes and say what one thinks.”
 -Cornelius Tacitus

Junior Prom

Find Your Own Voice

The evening began with a growing roar of voices as students poured into the Nashua Sheraton-Tara. The sounds of the prom were charged with excitement as more and more people filled the room. May 14, 1993, was to be a night remembered by all.

There was a buffet filled with foods from all around the world, and students traveled to exotic locales right there in the ballroom. The foreign flavor seemed to speak a strange and wonderful language all its own.

The night was filled with voices, speaking of plans, hopes, outfits. Anything and everything could be spoken that night and everyone spoke in his own voice, somehow finding the right words to say.

The one thing that wasn't heard that night, however, was the prom song. "We've Got Tonite" was silent and still. Had anyone clued the band?

Silence also reigned as the crowd eagerly awaited the voice of Mr. O'Brien announcing the prom Queen and King. Queen Stephanie Giblin and date Ryan Davenport let their actions speak for themselves as they danced the night away.

Right: Did you say "classy" officers?

Bottom: The hills are alive with the sound of music . . .

Above: What more is there to say?

Left: He couldn't say no to either girl — Denise Melaragni or Laurie Batten.

Below: Pam Rich beams with Danielle Nicossia.

We've Got Tonite

I know it's late.
I know you're weary.
I know your plans don't include me.
Still here we are, both of us lonely,
Longing for shelter from all that we see.
So there it is, girl, we've got it all now.
Look at the stars, so far away.
We've got tonite,
Who needs tomorrow?

Below: Sean Jenkins, with Amy Petipas, just had to say it in a song. . .

“YOU

Say It With Pride!

Mrs. Ouellette's raspy but powerful voice — the new voice of Billerica high since Mr. DeFeo's retirement from the rally circuit — blasted through the gym at the traditional Wednesday-before-Thanksgiving rally.

Rousing the crowd, demanding their attention, and miraculously getting their attention, Mrs. Ouellette paced around the podium like a general rallying the troops.

And rallied we were! The newly structured Spirit Week had lessened needless competition between the classes, so it was a unified and very loud crowd that welcomed the fall performances in all sports.

As they have for the last four decades, the cheerleaders escorted sports captains to their seats among their teammates. One by one the captains were called forward to sing the praises and/or rue the shortcomings of each team.

The Band, stretched casually across the gym stage, belted out inspiration, and the color guard, in new uniforms, dazzled the crowd with some highlights from their halftime program. The cheerleaders soared toward the rafters in death-defying pyramids, causing the teachers bunched at the doors to turn a little pale.

But it was the football team, with its incredible 9 - 0 record, that stole most of the thunder. The chance to whip Chelmsford had never before seemed such a possibility, and the crowd, fueled by the captains and Coach Flynn, told the Indian players that they were behind them, expecting nothing less than victory.

"Spirit week can be fun, it shows that after four years of hard work we are proud of our school and our class."
-Lynne Polsi

We Can't Say Enough About It!

For the first time in Billerica history, the B.M.H.S. Indians, won the State Division 2A Superbowl Championship (XXII) versus the Woburn Tanners. Was it our time? Did we prepare and plan and hope for this? You bet we did!

The team just came off a #1 season, and we wanted to "bring home the gold" with a victory over Woburn. During the year we set new records and established ourselves as a force to be reckoned with. We had the means, the direction, and the support to make our team great. Coach Flynn gave us the training and direction that our team needed and we wanted to make not only ourselves proud but our coaches proud of us. We headed into the Superbowl Game after a disappointing Thanksgiving game, so we needed to prove to ourselves and Billerica that we were a team that would not give up. Our coaches gave us the strength and motivation to come back strong. we were not quitters and we held our heads high and were determined to be a strong force-of will and pride.

We had the town of Billerica behind us. What a feeling coming into that game! It was our turn to become winners-to not let our fans down-to prove to ourselves that our training and determination was not in vain. we proved it: 27-7. We controlled the game. We did it for ourselves, our coaches, and you. Thanks for being there for us!

The Super Bowl was great. It was a game that we will remember for the rest of our lives. It was a great way for the seniors to top off their high school careers.

Say it again Seniors

What we say makes up who we are - who we are as a class and who we are as individuals.

We speak in different languages that sometimes are not translatable. We speak with our eyes, with our smiles, our frowns, our laughter, and our tears. We use body language to tell someone how we feel. We use words to reach across boundaries and to touch each other. Somehow we manage to say it all.

We speak English, Italian, Spanish, French, German, and Swahili, yet we manage to speak in the common language of school and life.

“ The time has come ... to talk of many things.. ”

Lewis Carroll

Our accents are varied - some Bostonian, some Mid-Western, some Southern, and some Western. But when all our voices mingle together - in the hallways, in the classrooms - we form a beautiful harmony that says it all over and over again.

“ YOU CAN
 THAT
 AGAIN! ”

In Memoriam Amy Ward

Shooting star:
For Amy, Who Will Be Missed

Some lives burn low and long;
Some burn bright and fast;
And some a brilliance create
In the space of one broken heart's beat.

A smile so pure and bright,
A love of life so strong,
And a friend so good and true
In a moment's unblinking measure gone.

Left behind the family she loved
Left behind are the friends close to her heart;
And left behind are the memories so clear,
The shining gift of this beautiful soul.

As gently as she passed through our world,
To comfort by the spirit became fresh
And ever with us;
And ever with us, for this she, Amy, still Remains in our hearts.

*Love, the family and friends
Amy's loving friends*

In Memoriam Jeff Dunakin

Just said good-bye to another good friend.
Everyone loved him, his pranks knew no end.
Friendly and free spirited always shone through,
Fooling around in whatever he'd do.
Remember the stories he'd tell in the past?
Everytime he opened his mouth we would laugh.
Yelling and dancing down the halls he would go.

Doing his "monkey" was always a show
Unique in his way, crazy stories he'd paint.
Now remember the times in the hallway he'd "faint"?
Always a helper, he'd stick up for a friend.
Kindness and affection he always did send.
In our minds we reflect, with a smile, what he'd do.
Never to be forgotten, Jeff, we'll always love you.
-In loving memory, Jeff Dunakin

In Memoriam Carrie Keyes

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you
for a little while -
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.

Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
for I am waiting for you in the sky!

Telling it like it is Faculty

Cobleigh helps Ryan Cataldo at the computer keyboard.

Speak up. Talk to me. Explain what you mean. Say whatever you want. Say anything. Say what you mean and mean what you say. Teachers speak to us in many different voices and teach us how to find our own. Some taught us how to express what we feel, how to put our ideas into words, and how to understand the words of others. Other faculty taught us how to speak in a totally different language; not just the French or German, but the languages of mathematics, science, and history. With each new language we learn, we can better express what we truly want to say. Teachers do not give us our voice, rather, they teach us how to use it. They teach us how to find the words, and the language, to give our ideas meaning. They give us the power to speak for ourselves, so we can have the ability to say what is important to us-so we can say it again and again, until the world pauses to listen.

Dear Graduates,

These words of Helen Keller are so relevant and important to remember as you move beyond the world of BMHS.

During your years at BMHS, as individuals and as a class, you have no doubt experienced many things that have touched your hearts — the pain of loss, the comfort of friendship, the joy of living, and the thrill of learning.

As you move on, please keep these experiences close to you. You will be tempted to become immersed in superficial and materialistic concerns losing sight of those feelings of the heart that are truly what life is all about.

I hope that BMHS has nurtured these feelings within you. Congratulations on your graduation. I look forward to reading about your successes in the future and please know that you will always remain members of our school community.

New Language Lab Comes To Billeric

This year, Billerica Memorial High School used the money that it received from the Zadoch Howe fund in order to build a Foreign Language Lab. Billerica is one of the first towns in the area to introduce this concept in its high school. This lab is a necessary component when studying a foreign language. It gives the students an opportunity to actively participate in their learning.

The lab consists of 4 rows of individual desks, each equipped with its own headset and microphones. This headset allows the student to listen and answer questions while being monitored by the instructor. Students may also make tapes of themselves to keep in order to correct their pronunciation.

The language lab is also video interactive. You may sit and watch a movie without being disturbed. These videos are advantageous because they enable students to hear the languages that they are studying class.

Let's Talk It Out!

During December representatives of Weston High introduced a program called Mediation and Conflict Resolution. This assembly was held for America High school students and staff. Two Weston High students set up a mediation session to demonstrate how this program provides an opportunity for fighting parties to settle a dispute peacefully. The mediation meeting allows both parties to express and share their views for a resolution to the conflict. The participants would reach a compromise and an agreement in the presence of a trained mediator. The goal of the plan is to prevent fighting among the students and encourage peaceful problem solving. The students and teachers chosen to take part in the program must participate in a training period. Mediators must learn listening, communication, and conflict resolution skills. Training sessions were held over a two-day period. We look forward to a lower B.M.H.S. in the future.

Speak Up . . . Talk Hard

The past four years have seen a developing consciousness in the school for the needs of teens in the nineties. Facing new problems such as AIDS, and old ones like pregnancy, divorce, and just plain old stress, students needed somewhere to go for help and information. The school has responded with a variety of services.

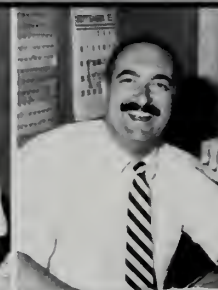

The clinic has always been there to address our physical needs, but something more was needed for our emotional ones. The new Teen Health Support Clinic opened this year to address those needs. It provides informational booklets on a variety of topics ranging from drug abuse to stress and self-esteem issues. The clinic is run by Ruthanne Rideout, R.N., who is available to talk with students, discuss their concerns, and give them information.

According to Mrs. Rideout the clinic's function is to "reach out to all teens" and to serve as a "resource room for health issues and emotional concerns." This clinic provided all of us with a place to speak our mind, to say what concerned us, and to ask for help. Our voices were listened to here and our questions answered.

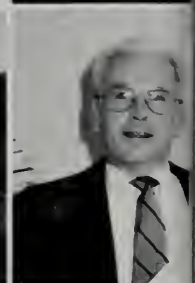

The new clinic, combined with earlier efforts like the AIDS conference, the Date Rape Seminar, and the new Mediation Team give the students several choices when confronted with a problem. It gives them a choice in what they say and how they say it.

Bruce Talks Weather

Who does Billerica High look to when they want to know the weather? Dave Bruce, of course, our trusted weather-watcher.

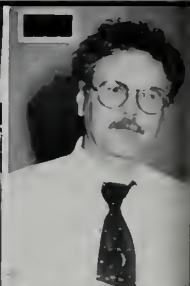

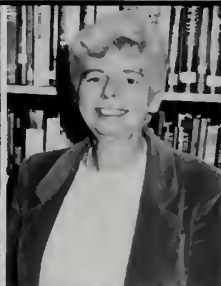

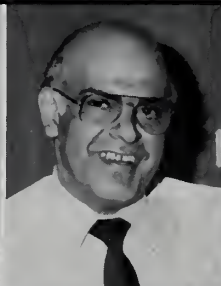

Dave Bruce is a junior at Billerica High who is doing something every morning that he has wanted to do since he was 11 years old. He is forecasting the weather.

Every morning Dave uses his modem to contact the National Weather Service. This service provides him with prognastic charts which show him the upper atmosphere and allow him to forecast where storms will be moving and how they will effect us.

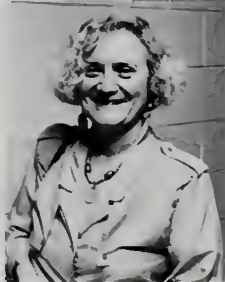

At a convention center in Chelmsford a meteorologist named Al Caprilian taught young students meteorology. This is where Bruce's career started. Since then, Bruce has become the official "weather-watcher" for Billerica Memorial High School. Dave has a direct line to Dick Albert and Harvey Leonard who count on him for local condition information and weather "chart."

What We Want To Say

Say What?
Philosophy
Huh?
School Philosophy
Say again!
School Phil-o-so-phy
PHILOSOPHY!

That's what we said during the week of April 11 - 14th. Who among us knew we had a school philosophy?

The philosophy committee did. Composed of Dr. Curtiss, Mr. Smond, Mr. LoDuca, Mr. Marchi, Ms. Phillips, Mr. Staveley, and student representatives, they spoke out on what principles our school community should be founded upon. Community, Dignity, Respect, and Enrichment are the four basic principles of our new school philosophy.

These four principles speak for us, they say who we are as a school and as a community. During "Philosophy Week" the committee urged students to say how they felt about the new philosophy and how it applies to the school. Teachers were encouraged to discuss the four principles in class, students were invited to meet in groups with committee members to explore their feelings on the philosophy, and the week was topped off by the broadcast of a debate which involved students and staff members. Mr. Staveley also made daily video presentations on the principle of the day, in which he interviewed students about their feelings on the four principles.

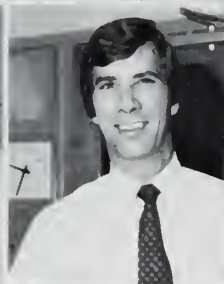

During this week students were encouraged to say what they felt and what they wanted their school community to be. Students spoke about change, about dignity and about respect, and what it was like to be a part of the B.M.H.S. community. They said what they needed to say, and they said it again and again. And the school listened.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words: Fall Sports

We screamed for victory and cried in defeat. We shouted encouragement and whispered condolences. We laughed at those who said we could not win and showed them how much we had within us.

And sometimes, we did not need words. Our bodies spoke for us. With movements practiced and studied, we glided to the finish line, sprinted to the end zone, leaped into the sky, dove into the still waters, and pushed our way to victory.

We listened to the sounds of triumph: the sharp slam of a volleyball spike, the quick whisper of the soccer ball into the net,

Just do it.

Nike

the soundless splash of the diver, the whistle of the ball across the green. We heard the encouraging shouts of the cheerleaders, the call of the band to rise up, to fight, to win!

Yet in some quiet moments of competition, words were not needed. Our bodies spoke a language all their own; they spoke of determination and a fierce desire to fight for what we wanted. Our actions spoke for themselves and louder than words ever could. They said all that needed to be said.

that
AGAIN!”

Actions Speak Louder Than Words: Football

The 1993 B.M.H.S. football team season was a dream come true for the players, the school and Billerica. But, before this team could show everybody how much talent they possessed there would be much practice and hard work.

The team started early during the summer: running, passing, and getting used to working and playing together. Since the team had a fairly young group of players, no one knew what to expect.

As the first game against favored Central Catholic neared, the team knew it had become something to be proud of, a team capable of competing with the best of the M.V.C. Billerica, the underdogs of the game, triumphed 13-0, and began to gain confidence, becoming a force to be reckoned with.

Our ninth straight win, a victory against Andover, clinched our share of the M.V.C. title and a possible Super Bowl win.

The team entered the Chelmsford Thanksgiving game all fired up and fought hard.

But the win slipped out of reach and almost 10,000 fans went home defeated. That Saturday the team practiced, still in Super Bowl contention, and the coaches brought the players together for a talk.

The team went to the Super Bowl, December 4, 1993, against the Woburn Tanners. The team won and with the championship, Billerica pride was resurrected.

The whole team made the victory possible, The seniors, led by captains Mike Mastrullo, Chris Burns, Rhondell Sawyer, and Matt Battcock, included B.J. Marinello, Rich Walukiewicz, Brian Tucker, Tom Bell, Brian McCormack, Ed Crowley, Jesse Graves, Joe Towne, Bob Hudson, Chad Belanger and Jim Krochune. These players helped to lead the team to a Super Bowl championship and also broke school records in season for most points scored and fewest points let up.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words: Fall Cheering

The cheerleaders started their season in August with vigorous morning practices throughout the month. The girls worked hard all season and succeeded in overcoming many obstacles to become the best. The team was led by eleven seniors, co-captains Brooke Costedio and Stacey Sullivan, Katie Chalpin, Summer DePari, Kelly Eastman, Jill Furlong, Kim Krasowski, Colleen McColgan, Kerry Murphy, Rebecca Richard, and Amy Whittier.

The girls cheered at the third annual Yankee Doodle Parade and bonfire, and supported a great football team all year long. They participated in the first ever Pop-Warner Pep Rally as well as their own rally to prepare for the Thanksgiving Day game. The team surpassed their performances of previous years by taking first place at the Woburn Invitational Cheering Competition after a long season of hard work and commitment.

Thanks to our coach, Leslie, and our #1 football team who helped make our senior year the best year ever.

The 1994 Band marched its way to success. The band played during the games of the fall season, announcing to the world the spirit of B.M.H.S. The band spoke of hard work and determination with every note. Senior Christine Clooney and Kelly Milward led the band to victory in a competition held in East Lyme, Connecticut. The band also received new uniforms this year.

The 1994 Colorguard also spoke for the pride of Billerica as it performed dazzling routines alive with color and grace. The carefully orchestrated movements of each routine was a language all its own and it spoke of the long hours of practice everyone put in to make the school dazzle and shine.

The Golf team entered the season uncertain of what the year would bring. We had lost three seniors and were left with only three returning juniors and a handful of sophomores. We also had the lingering disappointment of missing the state tournament by one point the previous year. However, the 1993 season would be anything but disappointing. Lead by tri-captains, Matt Eisnor, Scott Bolser, and Mike Cotta, the team finished the season with a 11-3 record, posting nine consecutive wins. This record not only guaranteed the team a spot in the state tournament but also the Merrimack Valley Conference Title.

The team was not only honored by the MVC with the championship, but also with three MVC All-Stars, Brian Cerroni, Scott Bolser, and Ryan Torpey, one MVC All-conference player Mike Cotta and one coach of the year, Michael Cowdrey. With the leadership of these honored golfers, the season was an overwhelming success. Success which can be specifically attributed to seniors Matt Eisnor, Scott Bolser, and Brian Cerroni; juniors Mike Cotta, Steve Moody, Ryan Torpey, Paul Penti, Josh Reynolds, Jim Powers, and Chris Roncari; and sophomores Mike Venenzia, Ryan Anderson, Steve Fell, and Kristen Infanger.

Leading the 1993 girls swim team were tri-captains Becky Eriksen, Julie Gibson and Lynne Polsi. The girls achieved a 5-7 record.

Many goals were set this season. Through perseverance and determination, the team sent 11 girls to the Northern Sectional meet. Qualifying swimmers were Julie Gibson in the butterfly, Lynne Polsi and Cathy Legg in the breaststroke, Leanne Hayes and Chrissy Sullivan in diving and Cathy Legg in the individual medley, Michelle Ouellette in the backstroke with Becky Eriksen, and Leslie Pacheco, Karen Morrison, Denise Blaisdell and Cheri Coluntuoni in the free-style.

Breaking the school record were Leanne Hayes in diving and Cathy Legg in the breaststroke.

Good luck to next year's team. We will miss Becky Eriksen, Julie Gibson, Lynne Polsi, Sonya Jordan, Amy Ward, Noelle Walsh, and Holly Moore.

As the 1993 BMHS boys cross country team began to train for the season, it looked as though it would be a rebuilding year. The Indians had lost four talented runners to graduation the year before, and there were many new faces on the team. From the first day it looked like the team goal would be to improve on their previous 2-7-1 season; however, it soon appeared that Billerica would surprise some people.

Inspired by second year coach Mike Granfield, and led by the dynamic foursome of seniors Chris Spring (captain), Joe Meuse, Sean Hagan, and Chris Schaffer, the team got off to a quick start. In the first meet of the season, Billerica traveled to Tewksbury and stunned the defending MVC champs.

The upset gave Billerica the confidence they needed, and it began to look like the team might be able to compete for an MVC small school championship.

As the season progressed, Billerica defeated all of the teams that they needed to beat including Haverhill, Wilmington, Dracut and Methuen. Finally it was time for Billerica to go up against their toughest opponent; Lawrence. It looked as though the race would be decided by a couple of points, and as it turned out, three points decided the meet. Unfortunately, it was Lawrence who ran away with the victory.

Although the Indians fell shy of an MVC title, they broke the .500 mark with a record of 5-5, their best record in three years. As it turned out, the season was very successful. As well as being competitive in the league, Billerica formed a solid base for the years to come.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words: Full Speed Ahead

The BMHS cross country season started out a difficult one, after losing four excellent seniors from 1992. Laura Traynham, Carolyn Hurray, Bernadete Donovan and Linda King had lead the team previously. The team's long-time and beloved coach, Mrs. Patricia Tobin, was also replaced by Denise Elliott and John Doherty.

However, the girls pulled together for a wonderful season despite the losses and injuries of key runners and captains Stephanie Walsh and Jamie Donovan.

The Lady Indians' quad-captains were Carrie Keyes, Jamie Donovan, Jessica Geisser and Stephanie Walsh. The team consisted of seniors Deborah Cohen, juniors Cathy Aborn, Abbey Spring, Michelle Curra, Lorurel Putnam, Donna DiFilippo, Tammy Morgn, Lisa Blades and Dina Passalacqua, sophomores, Lauren Manoli, Melissa Thomas, Maria Picardi, Amy Plimpton, and Karen Spencer, freshman Danielle Whitecomb and senior, manager, Melissa Mulvery.

Leading Billerica during the season were Melissa Thomas, Jamie Donovan and Jessica Geisser, who also placed tenth overall in the MVC league meet.

The 1993 girls' cross country team was a winning team despite its 3-6 record. Not only were many personal records set, but they also beat Methuen, Lawrence and Wilmington. The girls dedicated their season to their captain, Carrie Keyes. They kept her memory alive by keeping with them her sense of enthusiasm and sense of sportsmanship.

The girls volleyball team proved to the other teams in the M.V.C. that it would definitely not be a rebuilding season this year. The team made it to the State Tournament with a 11-7 record. The highlight of the season was a win over defending M.V.C. champs, Dracut.

This year's team was led by senior co-captains Amy Sherwood and Amy Falite, and other seniors including Mary Battcock, Melissa Bishop, Courtney Cronin, and Jacey McGinnis. Among the M.V.C. All-Stars were seniors Mary Battcock for blocking, Melissa Bishop for setting, and junior Charity Peterson for hitting. Senior Courtney Cronin was chosen for the M.V.C. All-Conference team for serving.

Overall, the team showed improvement and they were able to show everyone what they were made of.

After finishing a very successful season in 1992, the boys varsity soccer team knew they had a tough road ahead of them. Eleven seniors had graduated, eight of whom were starters, and the team had only three returning lettermen. Because of this, the season could be seen as a rebuilding year.

Coach LoDuca and captains Zack Zichittella and Jeff DeRosa felt that the team had potential, however. Even though the team was very young and relatively inexperienced, it achieved a record, just missing the state tournament by a couple of points. The team's strengths throughout the year proved to be their speed and strong defense, led by senior goaly Steve Presti. Without a doubt, their best game of the season came with a late season victory over a previously undefeated Lowell team. The team finished a tough season with a good record and showed what they were made of.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words: Believe!

After graduating ten senior starters from last year's 17-0-1 undefeated team, the girls soccer team did what no one thought we could do. We extended our unbeaten streak to 55 games, but that streak was ended in a tough Bishop Fenwick game when our tying goal was taken back on a referee's call. We ended the season at 14-1-2, qualified for the state tournament, and gained our 3rd straight MVC championship. We established ourselves as one of the premier soccer teams in Eastern Massachusetts, finishing 12th on the Boston Globe's end of the season coaches poll. Over the seniors' four year careers, we compiled an impressive 59-4-7 record.

The team also extended "the streak". The winning streak started during the 1990 season and with the team's continued success over the past four years kept growing. The streak ended at 50 wins, 0 losses and 5 ties. It was one of the longest running streaks in the state for a boys or girls soccer team. This record shows the hard work, dedications, and attitude of each player on the team. Our team motto said it all: "If you believe it, you will achieve it. If you doubt it, you will live without it."

Our success this season is not based on one person, but on the team as whole. Senior sweeper Karen Cotter shut down many opposing goal-hungry attackers, while seniors Gayle Pascucci, Laurel Keenan, and Casey Mahoney provided steady play. In the 1993 season, the team placed 5 players on the All-Conference Team, including senior Captain Karen Cotter, landed 4 on the All-Star Team.

Poetry In Motion: Girls Basketball

The varsity Girls Basketball team had one of the best seasons in the history of Billerica High. With a regular season record of 14-6 they captured the small school championship title and with it, will hang the first girls basketball banner in the gym.

The team also had four Merrimack Valley All Stars-freshman Kelly Balker, sophomore Tina Trider, and co-captains Mary Battcock and Courtney Cronin. Courtney Cronin also was voted small school MVP. The fifth starter, Julie Mitza, put in a fantastic season at guard on both offense and defense. A great effort was put in by the entire team throughout the season.

Poetry In Motion: Boys Basketball

The Varsity Boys Basketball team had a successful season despite having to overcome tremendous inexperience. After graduating seven seniors, five of whom were starting, Coach Kevin McDermott had only four returning lettermen to work with. Because of this fact the team was faced with adversity and low expectations. However, the opinions of many were changed throughout the season as the team significantly improved on last year's record by posting up five more victories and coming within a game of winning the small school championship. Senior Captains Zack Zichitella, Chris Burns, Rich Walukawitz, and Tom Bell provided strong and consistent leadership. Coach McDermott preached all season for his players never to "settle." Playing their final season, Zack, Chris, Rich, and Tom definitely didn't want to settle for anything less than win the small school championship. After a season ending loss to Tewksbury, the boys were disappointed but still had much to be proud of. The future looked bright for boys basketball. Returning Juniors for next year will be All-Conference selection Tom Pelton, Anthony Giordano, Gary Bricher, and Phil Kennedy.

Poetry In Motion: Boys Track

The 1994 boys indoor track team finished the season with a 6-1-1 record and were the M.V.C. Small School Champions. The team had an excellent season led by captains Paul Bellino, Tom McCabe, Ed Crowley, and Joe Meuse.

A high point of the season was the Northern Area Meet, where several members ranked highly in their individual fields. Paul Bellino placed second in the 50 yard; Cliff Thornton placed fifth in the same; and several underclassmen also ranked highly.

The team accomplished much this season. The 4 x 200 relay team of Paul Bellino, Mike Suechecki, Brendan Finn, and Scott Fisher was fifth in the State Coaches, and it also placed fourth in the New England meet. The sprint medley of Paul Bellino, Mike Suechecki, Brendan Finn, and Scott Fisher was second in the State Indoor Relays.

Seniors departing this year include the captains, Chris Spring, David Cushing, Sean Hagan, Scott Fisher, Jeevan Ramapriya, Cliff Thornton, and Chris Shaffer. Paul Bellino was named an All Star; Tom McCabe got the Coaches Award; and Sean Hagan received the Most Improved Award.

The lady Indians' season went like the old "so-close-yet-so-far-away" cliché. Led by Coach Dan Murphy and senior quad captains Debbie Cohen, Karen Cotter, Amy Falite, and Jacey McGinnis, the girls ran their way to victory. In a fight for the Merrimack Valley Conference - Small School Championship, Billerica lost to Methuen in a down to the relay meet. The girls had a strong team with lots of depth and are very hopeful for the success of next year's Winter Track Team.

Poetry In Motion Gymnastics

This year's varsity gymnastics team was one of school records and close calls.

Coached by Dawn Ducharme, the team ended the season with a 6-2 record and a second place finish in the M.V.C. The girls started off the season defeating Chelmsford for the first time, 113.85 to 113.7, and ended it with a school record, 122.7, against Andover.

Leading the team against Andover was senior co-captain Stacy Sullivan. With an all-around average of 32.15, she made many of the victories possible, despite an injury.

Senior co-captain Alison Drumm had an excellent improvement on vault and floor, while senior co-captain Colleen McColgan made her last year an impressive one with a 7.8 average on floor. Senior Lynne Polsi did a terrific job helping out. The seniors will greatly miss all present and past teammates and thank them for ending their four years with a bang.

Poetry In Motion: Wrestling

Beneath the looming shadow of their past accomplishments, the new squad of B.M.H.S. wrestlers prepared for their upcoming season. Many doubted whether or not the relatively inexperienced team would be able to recover from the loss of the eight senior starters of the 1992-93 season.

However, the legacy of the elite Billerica wrestling team continued to prosper as Coach Viglione and Assistant Coach Tholander guided the squad through a season of 9 wins and 7 losses. Those who thought of the Indians as easy prey were quickly proven wrong by the team as they fought for each victory and conceded to defeat only after a long battle.

Of the seniors who came and went throughout the season, the three who remained spearheaded the largest varsity wrestling team in Indians' history. The tri-captains this season were seniors Chris Hutchinson, Bill Hogan, and Rich Antonellis. Antonellis and sophomore Jeff Oliver brought home sectional championships, helping to bring the team to a third place finish in the Division I State Tournament. Antonellis and junior Matt Hogan were the only wrestlers to survive the states and advance to the All-State Tournament. Once again, tri-captain Antonellis advanced to the New England Tournament after securing the second place spot in the 140 lb. in the All-State. With the lone wrestler's third place finish among the region's prime talent, the 1993-94 season came to a close.

Listen to your soul. Listen to your heart. Listen as the trees sway and the wind blows, hear the sounds of spring sports. The cracking of the bat as a fly ball hits the wind. Listen to the sound of defeat, the sound of triumph, the exhilaration of the crowd as they chant "Go Indians!"

As senior leaders Mike Mastrullo, Tom Pelton, and Rich Walukiewicz guided the team to victory, the stands became jammed with fans.

Girls Softball

The Billerica High softball team had to prove itself to many people this year. With the loss of five seniors, including pitching-ace Beth Love, a lot of the other teams thought Billerica would be an easy win for their team. But they were sadly mistaken. Led by senior co-captains Amy Falite and Jill Furlong, and with lots of long, hard practices, the girls gained confidence in themselves and gave each opponent a tough battle. Many were surprised to see Billerica come ever-so-close to repeating their reign as MVC champs.

Girls Tennis

The Billerica High girls varsity tennis team, under the coaching of Shirley Granfield, had an impressive 1994 season, finishing with a record of 12 wins and 4 losses. This record qualified them for their second consecutive visit to the State Tournament. With six returning seniors, the season promised to be an excellent one and these girls made that promise come true.

The leadership of this year's co-captains, seniors Julie Gibson and Casey Mahoney pulled the squad together. Julie headed off the roster at first singles with her persistent net game. At second singles, senior Tiffany Gurney performed consistently well from the baseline. Senior Lisa Katcher, at third singles, often came through when needed to secure the team win.

The doubles teams added outstanding touches to the season. Each duo of starters was named by the Boston Globe as League All-Stars. The team of senior Gayle Pascucci and sophomore Tina Carraba tied together a powerful backhand and a pair of "fleet feet" to serve up a number of impressive victories, including a noteworthy one verse Chelmsford. In the second doubles position, Casey and sophomore Suzanne Foisy performed equally well with their share of victories.

Senior Patti Richardson and junior Abbey Spring were also important varsity players often rotating in at the third singles position or as a team at second doubles.

The Season was a series of both close and "runaway" victories. The girls fell to a mere two of their eight contenders, improving on last year's record of 11 wins and 5 losses. The victories brought them to the culmination of the season at their state tournament match verse Newton South. Although they walked away defeated after the first round, Billerica played well with the team spirit their opponents lacked.

Speak Your Mind Organizations

Sometimes one voice cannot be heard among millions. So what can you do? You can join your voice with others who are saying what you want to say.

Organizations give all of us a chance to speak out and speak up, to find a place where our voices are heard.

Amnesty members screamed out for universal human rights, students expressed themselves through the written word in Amanuensis, opinions were aired and argued in the Billerica Beat, and students were given a chance to explore foreign tongues in the

"It is easier for a man to be loyal to his club than to his planet; the by laws are shorter, and he is personally acquainted with the other members."

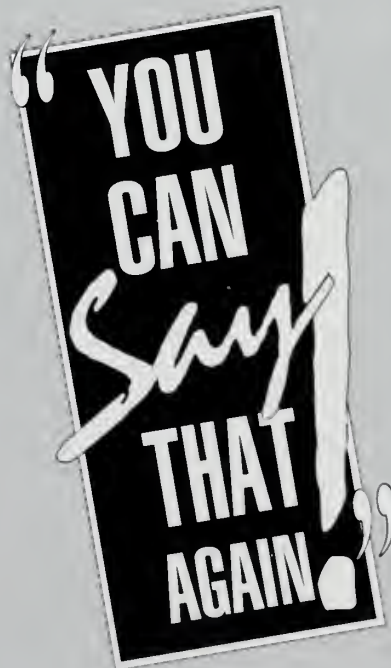

-E.B. White

Diane Rosati works hard on the school newspaper,

Spanish-Italian and French clubs. The Math and Science Leagues offered students an objective voice of pure numbers or science. THE B.M.H.S. Theatre Company gave students the chance to speak in voices other than their own. SADD members spoke out against the tragedies of drinking and driving and N.H.S. spoke up for service and scholarship.

Organizations gave us all a voice - so we could say what we wanted and needed to say, and so we could say so many different things and mean all of them.

Yearbook: We Say It All

Working on the 1994 Warrior Yearbook was a daunting, challenging task for all a small, but loyal band of Yearbook disciples. You can say that again, and that, by the way, is the theme of this year's chronicle: You can say that again! In black and white, and in very-expensive color, the exploits and foibles, the victories and losses of the class of 1994 have been recorded. Captions, headlines, and stories chronicle the "best years of our lives."

With the advice of Mr. Flynn and Miss Maarinaro, and under the leadership of Jen Garrett and Diane Rosati, and with special help from Dorina DeBlasi and Sharon Tabor, the yearbook took shape as volunteers typed, wrote, and shaped lay-outs for the book you hold in your hand. You'll laugh, you'll cry, and you'll remember the good times. You can say that again!

The Written Word Amanuensis

The B.M.H.S. literary magazine Amanuensis allows students to express themselves through the use of words, artwork, and even music. Submitted by students and put together by the club's staff and two advisors, the finished collection was published in the spring.

This year's theme "Cast a cold eye on life, on death," a quote from William Butler Yeats, leads the readers through a non-judgemental look at the phases and aspects of our daily lives. The book provides a forum for students to say what is within them.

Free To Speak Your Mind

Amnesty International

Being part of Amnesty International is a bit like trying to take on the world - literally. Not only are you trying to fight oppressive governments, but you're also fighting your own community which can sometimes be reluctant to listen to new ideas. This sort of attitude managed to bring a group of students at Billerica Memorial High School (who otherwise had little in common) to fight for a common cause. No one could accuse the chapter of Amnesty International of being overcrowded. Yet, the ten twelve dedicated members who actively participated in Amnesty International achieved more than most clubs at the school.

With a desire to help people who were being unjustly treated in their own countries, we organized petition drives, T-shirt drives, attended two rallies on student human rights, put together informative videos, and worked very hard to make our school aware of human rights abuses. Just when we thought that BMHS had given up on mankind, we saw tremendous support from the student body as well as the teachers. It was very rewarding to see people sign the petitions and comment on our videos.

There are so many people to thank for helping Amnesty along the way: Mrs. Sidley for being the greatest adviser (as well as human being) in the world, Mr. Staveley for helping us with our very frustrating video projects, Dr. Sharkey for his constant encouragement and support of the organization, and last but not least, to all the members of the club who made it all worthwhile.

Pearls Of Wisdom National Honor Society

This year's National Honor Society spoke out for scholarship, leadership, service, and character. It held two successful blood drives to help the Red Cross. It also held a Basketball Shoot-Out to help raise money for the March of Dimes. Students shot baskets for sixty seconds and got pledges for each basket they made. The society also held a successful candle sale to raise funds for the club and other charities.

Several seniors were inducted this year. They include Katie Chalpin, David Cushing, George Wilson, and George Woods.

We Finally Made it!!

You only need to say something once if you say it the right way.
Wrong.

We said "hello" to the world and "hi" to our friends every morning.
We said "Sorry I'm late" too many times to count and we groaned
"I hate Mondays" after every weekend. "Is it Friday yet?" we questioned every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. We repeated our mantra "I hate tests, I hate tests" as we took every one of them.

We spoke in smiles and laughter every day.

Elvis has left the building.

Unknown

We said "I'm sorry" again and again, but we tried to learn from our mistakes.

We spoke our minds and gave opinions freely, and repeatedly,
much to the dismay of some.

We said "We're here" and would not let anyone forget.

And finally we said, we whispered, we shouted, we chanted: WE MADE IT!

And you can definitely say that again.

Annual Musical Takes "Carousel" For A Spin

This year's musical, "Carousel," was performed by a multi-talented cast and a hardworking crew of over 100 people. A more dramatic and serious show than last year's comical "Bye, Bye, Birdie," "Carousel" is about Billy Bigelow (played by Chad Belanger) and Julie Jordan (Beth Flaherty), who meet at a carnival in May of 1873. The two eventually marry and live with Julie's cousin, Nettie Fowler (Becky Weaver). Billy gets himself mixed up with a brutish figure, Jigger Craigin (Jim Krochune), and during a robbery attempt, Billy is killed. To get into Heaven, Billy must perform a good deed down on Earth. He goes back to Earth to help his daughter Louise (Dustie Miller). Once he accomplished this task, Billy begins his journey back to heaven.

With elaborate costumes, wonderful scenery, and extremely beautiful singing, the performance was definitely deserving of the standing ovation received each of the three nights the play ran.

The rest of the leads included Annette Strassberger (Carrie Pippertidge), Brian Hammer (Enoch Snow), Missy Miller (Mrs. Mullins), Kelly Thomas (Heavenly Friend), Lyle Bibler (Starkeeper and Dr. Seldon), and Theron Hatch (Enoch Snow, Jr.). Other graduating cast members who will be missed dearly are Jacey Bokuniewicz, Zoe Lawson, Diana Peta, Laurel Keenan, and Lynne Polsi.

“These Are The Times To Remember . . .”

Everyone always says that these are the best years of our lives. Well, June 1, 1994, was certainly one of the best nights of our lives, truly a “time to remember,” as the class of 1994 met one last time to party with friends and flames at the Senior Prom.

The seniors danced, joked, and generally had a great time at the Westin Hotel in Waltham. The disc jockey was great and Billy Joel’s classic—our theme— brought back memories to everyone there. The international food court-style buffet was a great opportunity to pig-out for those whose tuxes and dresses offered a little extra room.

We could not say all that was in our hearts that night, all that we thought as we twirled around the dance floor, looking strangely adult and sophisticated. But by the time 10:30 came around shoes were scattered on the floor, jackets were off and we were just us, having one last blast together.

Class Day: Class Act

A long flotilla of Billerica cars moved up the highway toward Cedardale for the annual Class Day romp. Graduation practice went well, and the weather was a warm but cloudy 75 degrees as the class of 1994 got ready to let loose. Cedardale offered something for everyone: miniature golf, a hot tub, volleyball, tennis, whiffle ball. There was a lot of opportunity for friendly competition. Many, of course, chose to do some serious lounging around the pool, while others headed for the huge barbecue buffet spread.

Chaperones, including Mr. DeFeo, Mr. Colangelo, Mr. O'Brien and Mrs. Endicott, looked on approvingly and, we think, affectionately. It was always easier to get this class to have fun than buckle down, and here was a day to do just that!

“We must embrace life and with it, the hopes and dreams of a better one. We must strive to make the most of our dreams and of the time we have.

We hold the future in our hands, we are the masters of our own destinies, and we must not give up before we even begin. We can make our lives extraordinary if only we have the courage to try, to imagine all that we can be. We must dream and hope and plan the impossible. For we have the power to make it possible.

We have the power to change the world.”

-Jennifer Garrett

“There were times when we all laughed together. There were times when we laughed at each other. There were times when someone was laughed at. There were also times we cried together. There were also times when people cried alone.

A friend of mine made a list of rules to try to cope with in the future: ‘Trust people. Believe in yourself. Keep your head up but not your nose. Look for rainbows.’”

-Zoe Lawson

“Four years ago, we entered this school as nervous and apprehensive freshmen. We approached school looking at new faces and new beginnings. With all of the adjustments that were taking place, it was difficult to concentrate on being united as a class. Here we are at graduation. The time that our parents have been cautioning us about has finally arrived. We must begin a new life for ourselves-and even start to do our own laundry and cleaning. Our class size is large in numbers, but the greatest quality of our class is in the strength, character and personality of each individual. There is inside of us the potential to be what we want to be.”
